Terms and Conditions of ordering and payment - Please read carefully!

Tankograd is an old-fashioned company with traditional values such as competent research, high printing quality and careful shipping. We are certainly not a hype e-book publisher, we rather stick with paper as a medium.

Regarding online ordering services, we are equally traditional, sometimes even called 'stone age'. However, with even major global players such as online auction platforms and major online warehouses (despite being run by vast IT departments) being hacked, a small publishing house such as Tankograd simply cannot guarantee full online security. We have therefore decided that we will not have an online shopping cart. Our customers will have to transmit their order and credit-card data in the old (and safe way) of letter or fax after printing the order and filling in the sensitive data by hand.

Should you, dear customer, not be satisfied with these measures that serve your security, we advice to order from the about one hundred online shops worldwide that carry our range.
